

321—24.22(231D) Program alteration. A program shall notify DIA within ten working days of any operational changes that are a deviation from the most current certification or recertification application and associated documentation.